What Do Curators and Art Award Judges Look for

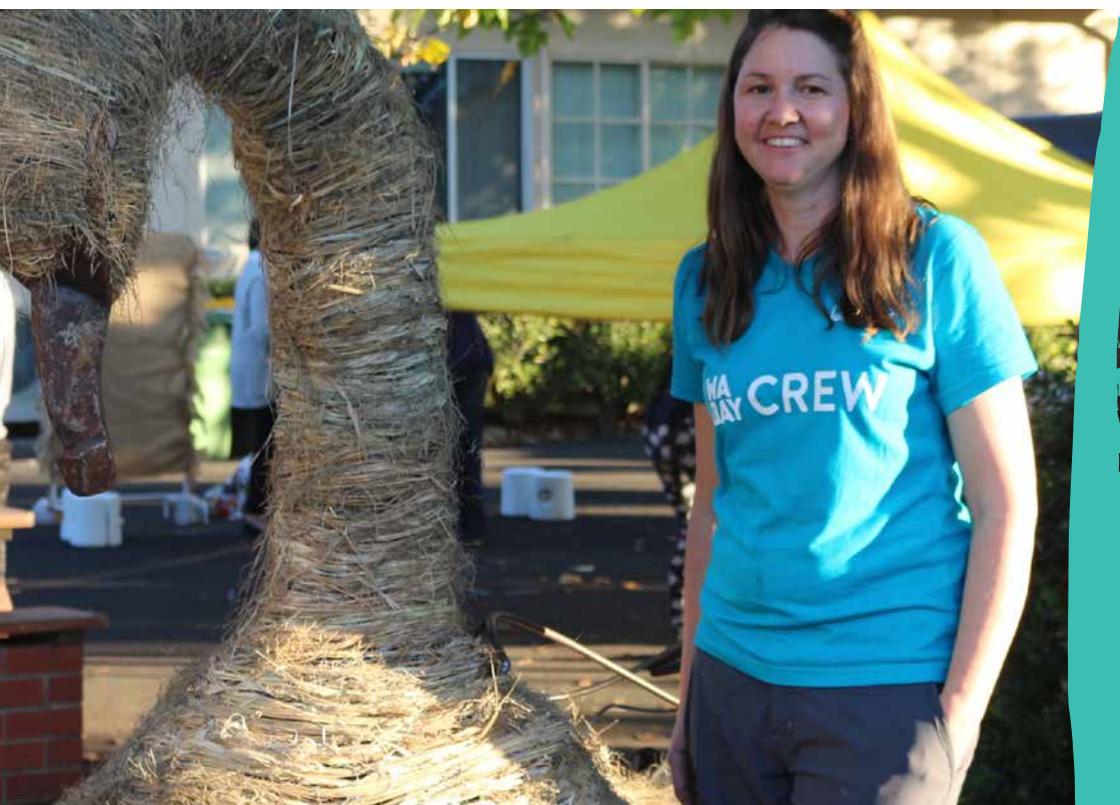

Presented by Rebecca Corps

 Saturday 10 February 2018  1pm - 3pm

Do you want to know what goes on in the minds of judges and curators? Join the curator of the City of Rockingham Art Awards for a discussion on judging, curating and her vision for 2018. This workshop is open to anyone with an interest in exhibiting their work, particularly those wanting to enter the 2018 City of Rockingham Art Awards.

About the facilitator:

Rebecca worked as a seamstress for many years before developing a passion for textile art and completing her Bachelor of Arts Honours at ECU South West. She has exhibited in various group exhibitions including the Bunbury Biennale, South West Survey, WAFTA TwentyOne and Wearable Art Showcase in Mandurah. Her work in the arts includes public art commissions and curating. Rebecca currently works at the Stirling Street Arts Centre as part of the events team.

The Artistic Triangle

Presented by Gillian Peebles

Sunday 25 February 2018

10am - 4pm

Art does not exist without the 'Artistic Triangle' – “the Artist, the Agent and the Audiences”. Learn the value of this unique system and how to put it into action for artistic benefit. Knowledge of this methodology helps artists understand their goals more clearly and helps to lead them to successful arts industry careers.

About the facilitator:

Appreciative of advantages and experiences gained in a career dedicated to Visual Fine Arts, Gillian devotes her working time to sharing her extensive collection of unique knowledge. Many ex-students, now multi award winning artists, lay testimony to the value of this ethos of knowledge sharing, and in turn, hand on the information.
